MAY

FRIDAY/1

7:00 NEWS.

7:15 ONCE OVER LIGHTLY. With Paul Gorman.

9:00 MAY DAY.

International Workers Day grew out of a burgeoning union movement organized to fight the worst exigencies of industrialization. A hundred years later the traditions of organizing and the patterns of exploitation continue. But conditions have changed. Manufacturing regions now include the South and the Midwest as well as the North; health hazards now plague the home and the environment as well as the factory; economic hardship now affects the working and middle classes as well as the poor. And while new minority amalgamations have made an amelioration of these conditions more possible, government assaults on civil liberties threaten the formation of a mass movement. From 9 a.m. till midnight, breaking only for the news, we commemorate May Day.

6:30 NEWS. With Robert Knight.

7:00 MAY DAY CONTINUES.

11:30 NEWS. A rebroadcast of the 6:30 evening news.

HOMMAGE A SAKHAROV. A live broadcast of most of a two-day conference in honor of the 60th birthday of Andrei Sakharov, Nobel Laureate, human rights advocate, Soviet dissident, and one of the developers of the Soviet H-Bomb. A distinguished group of scientists, historians, philosophers, writers and public figures will gather to discuss Andrei Sakharov and His Contributions to Science; Sakharov and Issues of War and Peace; and Sakharov and Human Rights and Justice. A distinguished list of speakers from the United States and England will address the conference.

Dr. Sakharov has been confined to the closed city of Gorky in the Soviet Union in internal exile since 1980. In 1975 he was awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace. His citation included: "Sakharov's love of truth and strong belief in the inviolability of the human being, his fight against violence and brutality, his courageous defense of the freedom of the spirit, his unselfishness and strong humanitarian convictions have turned him into the spokesman for the conscience of mankind, which the world so sorely needs today."

The Conference is sponsored by the New York Academy of Sciences, the American Physical Society and the American Institute of Physics. The broadcast is an independent production of the Radio Foundation. Larry Josephson, Host and Executive Producer. Eileen Zalisk, Producer and Co-Host. Becca Pulliam, Field Producer. Miles Smith, Production and Engineering Coordinator.

Dear WBAI

This is a fan letter and a remark.

I would like to make a financial contribution and if I ever succeed in doing illustrations I like and selling them you get a big cut. Now I'm broke.

Your lively and varied programming makes it possible to work at home alone and still feel part of a community—I've been going to classes to be a volunteer tutor (Literacy Volunteers) and discovered that the women in class I liked were also WBAI fans, and one with a good job is even a contributor.

I always listen to the News, hard to find anything as complete. "All Things Considered" tends to be so superficial. Foreigners I know well from Sierra Leone, Northern Ireland, France, Iran, feel Americans never hear simple honest facts about them.

It seems crazy to single out programs since I like so many. I think Sat AM Piper—Mary Houston—Paul Gorman—are a very satisfying, lively group.

In general I like hearing women around my age who sound human. A real change from most programming.

What is the purpose of your political focus? Is it sort of hot house reminders for people who already are a very small group—perhaps best described as concerned and talkative? It seems that racism—or a desire to blame others, is a major poison in America. You can't "organize" such a people. You have to live in your mixed neighborhood and be friendly and helpful and tolerant and try to wash some of the bitterness away by caring.

Your programing makes it easier to feel caring.

THANKS

Marilyn Jones
